REPORT FOR THE WEEK OF 27 - 31 JULY  To: The Deputy Director of Training (G) From: Management Training Division  Accomplishments  Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  Ceneral 25X1  Ceneral 25X1  Ceneral 25X1  The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information we can graphing our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.  I am planning to attend the Seminar on USSR at SAIS, 10 - 14 August.
To: The Deputy Director of Training (G)  From: Management Training Division  Accomplishments  Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  General 25X1  Concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  SXI  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.
To: The Deputy Director of Training (G)  From: Management Training Division  Accomplishments  Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  General 25X1  The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.    A new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.    Is in her fourth week of BIC training.
To: The Deputy Director of Training (G)  From: Management Training Division  Accomplishments  Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  General 25X1  The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.    A new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.    Is in her fourth week of BIC training.
Accomplishments  Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  General 25X1  Concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.
Accomplishments  Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  General 25X1  Concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.
Accomplishments  Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  Ceneral 25X1  revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.
Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  General 25X1  concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.
Commenced the initial phase of the Human Resources Program with 12 Branch Chiefs and equivalent staff of the Logistics Office.  General 25X1  concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	•
General  25X1    concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.    a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.    is in her fourth week of BIC training.
General  25X1    concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.    a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.    is in her fourth week of BIC training.	with ice.
concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	- · • concerning revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.
revision of Evaluation Sheets for Clerical Training Branch activities. The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.    a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.    is in her fourth week of BIC training.
The large volume of trainees and the relatively small staff make it necessary to shorten the current evaluation reports. Further 25X1 discussion on 10 August.  It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	concerning activities.
It is impossible to get any reliable, definite information from the 25X1 General Services Office concerning dates for moving the people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.    a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.    is in her fourth week of BIC training.    commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	f make it
people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	ther 25X1
people into Curie Hall. If we can get them to postpone the move of the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	from the osy the Clerical Induction Section until the end of August, it will greatly simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.
simplify our problems of operation. From all the information we can glean, no move is now contemplated until about 15 August.  25X1  a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	will greatly a new secretary for this Division, is now fully cleared and will be working at helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	ion we can and will be working at, helping and taking some training for herself, until early in September.  is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.
is in her fourth week of BIC training.  commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.
commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.	TIE DOME commenced the BIC(CS) training on Monday.
I am planning to attend the Seminar on USSR at SAIS, 10 - 14 August.
	4 August.

25X1

25X1

25 YEAR \(\sigma\) Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2010/02/22 : CIA-RDP55-00166A000200040211-5